"O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him." (Psalm 34:8)
Happy Sabbath to all members and visiting friends. May the Lord bless you as you worship Him, and celebrate the memorial of the Communion service today. All members and visiting friends are welcome to participate.

Sabbath Reflection: "Jesus, seeing that to antagonize was but to harden, refrained from direct conflict. The narrowing selfishness of Judas' life, Christ sought to heal through contact with His own self-sacrificing love. In His teaching He unfolded principles that struck at the root of the disciple's self-centered ambitions. Lesson after lesson was thus given, and many a time Judas realized that his character had been portrayed, and his sin pointed out; but he would not yield."
